

Privacy Policy

End User Information: Users acknowledges and agrees that the NIOSH Malaysia Service is not designed for users to accept, and users agrees not to request, obtain, or retain, any non-public personal information of End Users. The parties acknowledge that the Personal Data Protection Act 2010 ("PDPA") governs the disclosure of non-public personal information about clients, including End User information. The parties shall comply with the applicable terms and provisions of the PDPA and other Applicable Law, including, but not limited to, the provisions of the PDPA regarding the security, re-use, sharing and re-disclosure of non-public personal information.